CHALLENGES OF 21ST-CENTURY ENGLISH:
SECOND THOUGHTS CONFERENCE ON LINGUISTICS, CULTURE AND LITERATURE

START: 9:15

Panel 1:   9:30–10:30

9:30 Rusudan Makhachashvili
Innovative educational communication in the digital realm (based on European and Asian varieties of English)

9:50 Weronika Rutkowska
Teaching English spelling in a multisensory and structured way: The case study of two EFL learners with SpLDs

10:10 Yousif Al-Naddaf
Learning to write in a foreign language. A study of Arabic users of L2 English

10:30 Discussion

Panel 2: 10:45–11:45

10:45 Adrian Sobolewski
Memes as REpresentation – Introduction to the Problem

11:05 Helena Żegnałek
Discursive Practices of the Far Right: Analyzing "The Great Replacement" manifesto

11:25 Sara Górna
Modern potrayals of Katharine Howard in the context of 21st-century feminist movements

11:45 Discussion

Panel 3: 12:00–13:00

12:00 Piotr Miszczuk, Jan Ziętara
Inclusiveness of Google grammar-check: evidence from singular and plural forms of nouns and verbs

12:20 Rafał Kamiński
Speling Inglish in the Twenty First Senchery

12:40 Milena Bryła
The Cultural Impact of the COVID Pandemic on the Psychedelic Community. Corpus-Assisted Discourse Study

13:00 Discussion

13:15–13:30 Coffee break

Panel 4: 13:30–14:30

13:30 Sofiya Voytukhova
Possible Worlds Semantics in Marguerite Vivian Young's language

13:50 Maria Łusakowska
Is heterosexuality dead in the 21st century? Netflix nostalgia for the old patterns of intimacy in the reality TV "Love is Blind."

14:10 Piotr Dąbrowski
Sex, Death, and the Atom Bomb: Reading Frank O'Hara's "Ode to Joy" in the Context of Post-War America

14:30 Discussion

Panel 5:   14:45–15:45

14:45 Michalina Czerwońska
Representation of Anthropocene-related issues in contemporary American cinema on the basis of First Reformed (2017), Nomadland (2020) and Okja (2017)

15:05 Xi Chen
A Feminist Economics Critique of Medical Model in Disability

15:25 Marek Kobryń
You are what you google

15:45 Discussion
Closing of the conference