

Open Lectures: Course Requirements

Course requirements for Open Lectures are the same for Linguistics and Literature and Culture on the BA and MA levels.

During your studies, we encourage you to attend open lectures organized by the Institute of English Studies, the University of Warsaw, or other academic and cultural institutions (e.g., museums, science centers, libraries, etc.). Noc Anglistów lectures are also included in the program. For every lecture, you receive 1 point. You are required to collect between 8 to 12 points, and your grade will depend on the number of points:

8 points – 3 (dostateczny)

9 points – 3+ (dostateczny plus)

10 points – 4 (dobry)

11 points – 4+ (dobry plus)

12 points – 5 (bardzo dobry).

You document your attendance in an Open Lectures table found here:

https://ia.uw.edu.pl/fileadmin/ilustracje/dokumenty/2022/Lectures_list_general.pdf

In the table, you enter the date and the title of the lecture.

For in-person lectures: in the box “Proof of attendance,” obtain the signature of one of the organizers/professors from the IA or UW who are present.

For online lectures: in the box “Proof of attendance,” write “online.”

Example:

Open Lectures for students of English Studies
Institute of English Studies

Student's name and surname: Taylor Swift

No	Date	Title of Lecture	Proof of Attendance
1.	10.03.2023	Edyta Frelik, Art and Intellect: What Makes an Artist Think	ONLINE
2.	10.06.2024	Mapping the Navajo World in the Works of Esther Belin and Sherwin Bitsui	Joanna Zulska
3.
4.

For every lecture, please write a short summary (200-250 words) stating the main topic or thesis. The summary needs to be in English. Arrange all your summaries in one file.

Once you have collected all the points, email all the summaries and the Open Lecture table to your program Coordinator:

LINGUISTICS	LITERATURE and CULTURE
Coordinator: dr hab. Anna Rędzioch-Korkuz annaredzioch@uw.edu.pl	Coordinator: dr hab. Joanna Ziarkowska, prof. UW j.ziarkowska@uw.edu.pl

If you have any questions, please email your Coordinator.