

Access to the Library

A student identification card is necessary for registration in the library system.

Registration is possible via internet (<http://www.buw.uw.edu.pl/>) or in person at the Main University Library at Dobra 56/66 from Monday to Saturday, 9-20 at the Circulation Desk (the ground floor, on the left side from the entrance).

After registration a student card becomes a library card. The card is required when borrowing books or other resources from the Libraries.

Documentary resources

The Library's documentary resources can be searched through the University of Warsaw's online catalog:

<https://chamo.buw.uw.edu.pl>

All the didactic materials (including textbooks and lectures) are available at the circulation desk. Journals and monographs are available in the reading room. Information about the access to these collections can be obtained in the circulation desk.

Loan services

Standard loan: students can borrow up to 5 volumes for 1 month and renew their loans twice, via authentication in the online catalogue. Owing to the fact that most books are stored off-site, books should be reserved in advance via the on-line catalogue.

Interlibrary loan: the books or journal articles not held by the University of Warsaw can be requested from other libraries by the interlibrary loan service via the circulation desk or by writing to the Library's e-mail:

wmb.angli@uw.edu.pl

Electronic resources

All the electronic resources (databases, e-journals, online catalogs, portals, etc.) available to the students of the University of Warsaw can be searched and accessed through University of Warsaw Library :

<http://www.buw.uw.edu.pl>

Authentication, from outside the library: the username (student identification number) and password is required.
